Supplies Network Adds Printers to IT Supplies Line-Up

July 5, 2006—St. Louis, MO—Supplies Network, the largest privately owned wholesaler of IT consumables in the U.S., is now offering a selection of more than 100 printers manufactured by Brother, HP, Lexmark and Samsung.

Focusing on the independent dealer, Supplies Network is developing marketing programs to help resellers find opportunities to replace old technology equipment with color and multifunction printers.

“While consumables continue to be the major source of revenue and profit for the IT industry, printers are increasingly strategic to the growth of supplies,” said Greg Welchans, Supplies Network president. “The rapid turnover of printer models, the drop in size and cost, and the ease of installation are all reasons why this is the right time to broaden our product line to include printers.”
